REPORT ON SAVE THE GIRL CHILD AND THE IMPORTANCE OF EDUCATION

Awareness program on "Save the Girl Child and the Importance of Education," organized by MSS R G Kedia College in collaboration with Rotary Club on 23rd January 2019 bring together all the students together to raise awareness on the critical issues concerning gender imbalance and the transforming impact of education in empowering females.

The Need to Save the Girl Child: We address the worrisome subject of dwindling female population and the social, cultural, and economic repercussions it entails. By emphasizing the worth and potential of every girl child, we hope to raise awareness and inspire action.

Discussing the difficulties and problems that females experience in obtaining an education, such as cultural conventions, gender stereotypes, poverty, and a lack of resources. We can strive towards building an enabling environment that promotes equitable educational opportunities for all if we recognize these barriers.

This seminar on the significance of education and rescuing the female child seeks to raise awareness, motivate action, and promote a culture that recognizes and nourishes every girl's potential. Let us work together to tear down gender barriers, encourage education, and empower girls to ensure a better future for everybody.
