REPORT ON NATIONAL UNITY DAY

Objective

The primary objective of National Unity Day is to foster national integration, promote a sense of unity among the diverse communities of India, and honor the contribution of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel to the nation's unity.

National Unity Day is a significant occasion in India, where people from all walks of life come together to celebrate the spirit of unity and pay tribute to Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel. Known as the "Iron Man of India," Patel's relentless efforts in integrating more than 560 princely states into a unified and independent nation were remarkable. The observance of National Unity Day serves as a reminder of the strength that comes from unity, diversity, and the shared vision of a prosperous and harmonious India.

Vallabhbhai Patel, the first home minister of independent India, is credited for the merger of over 560 princely states into the Union of India. Patel was born on October 31, 1875, and his birth anniversary is celebrated as National Unity Day in India.

In our college Prof. R. Nageshwar Rao, Director-General, Prof.Vandana Samba Director - Research, Dr .N.Srinivas MBA Principal, Dr.K.V.S Sudhakar MCA principal ,faculty members and students have participated in celebration of National Unity Day at 12.30 pm . NSS unit Jeevan Jagruthi took the initiative of celebrating.

GLIMPSES:

All the faculty members and students celebrating National Unity Day

National Unity Day is a day of reflection, celebration, and commitment to the values that define India as a nation. It is an occasion to remember and honor the sacrifices and contributions of those who worked tirelessly to unite the country and to reiterate our commitment to maintaining the unity and diversity that make India a unique and vibrant nation.
